JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF PROPOSED AGREED ORDER TO PRESERVE THE TRIAL DATE

Plaintiffs Steven and Melody Millet (the “Milletts”) and Defendant TrueLink, Inc., now known as Trans Union Interactive, Inc. (“TrueLink”) (jointly referenced herein as “the Parties”), by their attorneys, and pursuant to this Court’s October 24, 2006 Scheduling Order (the “Scheduling Order”), (D.I. 82), respectfully move this Court for the entry of the Proposed Agreed Order to Preserve the Trial Date attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and state as follows:

1. Paragraph 5 of the October 24, 2006 Scheduling Order (“Paragraph 5”) states that “[n]o summary judgment motion may be filed more than ten (10) days from [September 28, 2007] without leave of the court.” (D.I. 82, ¶5). Contemporaneously with this Joint Motion, the Parties have filed their Notice Concerning Scheduling Order pursuant to Paragraph 5 of the Scheduling Order, informing this Court that the Parties have jointly agreed to extend the filing deadline for summary judgment motions by one business day to Monday, October 1, 2007. This one-day extension will not alter the scheduled period for briefing on the summary judgment motions, as the parties have agreed that the briefs in opposition will be due within 30 days of Friday, September 28, 2007 and reply briefs shall be due within 15 days after service of the opposition.

2. The Scheduling Order also states that “this matter is scheduled for a week long trial commencing on March 24, 2008.” (D.I. 82, ¶9).

3. This Court’s Important Note concerning Summary Judgment Motions states:

Should the parties stipulate or otherwise request to have their dispositive motion deadline extended, and a trial date is currently set on the court's calendar in the case, the parties will lose their trial date upon the court's granting the extension. No new trial date will be given until the dispositive motion(s) have been decided.

(See <http://www.ded.uscourts.gov/SLRmain.htm>).

4. Because the Parties’ agreement, pursuant to the October 24, 2006 Scheduling Order to file summary judgment motions on October 1, 2007, will not alter the scheduled period for briefing on the summary judgment motions, the Parties respectfully request that this Court preserve the trial date in this matter currently scheduled for March 24, 2008.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs Steven and Melody Millett, and Defendant TrueLink, Inc. respectfully request that this Court enter the attached Proposed Agreed Order to Preserve the Trial Date.
